DELFL & DALFL REGISTRATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please note that registration and payment must be made together by the session closing date. No registration can be accepted without payment. Neither refunds nor credits are possible after the session closing date. Refunds minus a 10% admin fee can be made before the closing date. After the closing date, we will not be able to accept your registration.

Dictionaries are not allowed, with the exception of the DALFL C1 and C2 where a French-French dictionary is accepted.

Candidates must arrive 15 minutes before the beginning of the test with a photo ID (such as passport or Australian DL). No admittance once exam has begun.

Candidates must be aware of dates, times and structure of their exam. Each candidate will be notified in writing of their timetable, 7 days before the exam day.

Please ensure to write your details as clearly as possible on your registration form in order to avoid mistakes on your diploma. Candidates must double check that their details on their registration form are correct as these details will appear on their certificate. Once DELFL or DALFL diploma are issued, names or dates cannot be changed

Candidates must advise us if they have previously taken any DELFL or DALFL units in another examination centre and they must also provide us with their registration number from that centre

Postage of DELFL or DALFL Diploma – please read carefully:

You will first receive a certificate with your marks if you have passed successfully the examinations. If you do not pass, you will only be advised of your marks by email and no certificate will be sent

Three months after the examinations candidates will be issued a Diploma by the CIEP. These diplomas can only be collected at Alliance or sent via registered post. The cost is $15.00 to be paid in advance OR $30 for international postage.

Please select below:

- I will collect my diploma from Alliance and advise Alliance of my email address or any change of address
- I would like the Alliance to post the Diploma via registered post to the postal address below:
