Alliance Française
Brisbane - Australie

General Provisions

1/ The facilities and resources of the library of the Alliance Française de Brisbane (AFB) are primarily for the use of the members, students with membership cards and staff of the AFB. The missions of the library are to contribute to the transmission of French and the francophone cultures and to provide information, resources and enjoyment for all.

Opening Hours

Monday to Friday      9.30 am to 7.30 pm
Saturday                9.00am to 12.30 pm

Access to library items

3/ On site consultation of library items is reserved to members and current students of the AFB. After consultation, items must either be returned to the reception or be placed back on the shelves.

Borrowing

4/ Students enrolled in a class at the AFB can borrow items as long as they have a valid AFB membership.

5/ Patrons who do not study at the AFB but wish to borrow items are required to become a member of the AFB.

6/ The selection of items borrowed by under-aged students must be approved by their parents or guardians. The AFB receptionist or other employee cannot be held responsible for their choice of borrowed items.

7/ Library patrons are responsible for all library items borrowed. They are required to take care of the items in order to keep them in good condition. It is strictly forbidden to write or to draw on the items or to fold or turn down the corner of the pages.

8/ In order to avoid any dispute, it is advised to mention all faults/damage on items at the time of borrowing.

9/ Extension of borrowed items is possible only when:

- The item(s) has (have) only been borrowed once.
- The item(s) has (have) not already been reserved by another patron of the library.

Apart from these specific conditions, all borrowed items can be extended once.

Request for an extension must be made before or by the due date

Borrowing allowances

	AFB ADULT or CHILD	FAMILY MEMBERSHIP
BOOKS For 4 weeks	3	6
DVDs For 1 week	1	2
CDs For 1 week	2	3

*Please note that teaching resources ("manuels et références") can be borrowed for only 2 weeks and are non-renewable.

Return of library items

10/ Items must be returned by the due date and directly given to the receptionist. If you have borrowed items from the library and have not returned them, you will not be able to borrow any other items.

Penalties

11/ Library patrons are responsible for all library items issued to them. In the event of loss, failure to return library items or damaged items patrons may be charged with the replacement cost of the items, plus loss of his/her library privileges temporarily or permanently.

12/ Patrons who do not return items on time can be charged penalty fees:

- A notice will be sent via email 3 days after the due date. The patron will then have 3 days to return the item(s). If items haven't been returned 7 days after the original due date, a penalty fare of $ 0.50 per item per day will apply.

- A final notice: "Final notice for overdue library items" will be sent via email, 10 days after the first notice advising the borrower that if the item(s) is/are not returned within 7 days following receipt of the email, the borrower will be requested to pay for the replacement item(s).
